

Personnel Specification

Job Title Research Associate Ref: C09/219
Department School of the Built Environment
Faculty Art, Design & Built Environment

Educational and Professional Qualifications	Essential	A degree in physics, engineering or applied sciences discipline or equivalent.
	Desirable	A relevant higher degree and/or PhD
Previous Experience/ Training	Essential	Evidence of having undertaken research involving development of engineering systems. Knowledge of computational fluid dynamics.
	Desirable	Experience of hydrogen safety. Experience of formulating testing procedures. Knowledge of object-oriented languages such as C++ and/or PHP. Experience of preparing technical drawings.
Job Related Achievements	Essential	Evidence of successful completion of projects within deadlines. Evidence of writing technical reports. Good knowledge of computer applications.
	Desirable	Evidence of developing new concepts and ideas in research. Knowledge of computer software for engineering design. Knowledge of Intellectual Property/Patent Issues.
Inter-Personal Skills	Essential	Evidence of ability to communicate effectively both orally and in writing. Evidence of ability to work in a team environment. Evidence of ability to show initiative. Evidence of ability to work without supervision when required.
	Desirable	Evidence of ability to convey ideas to both technical and non-technical audiences.
Research and Analogous Activities	Essential	Evidence of formal research output, e.g. publications in academic journals and/or conferences. Evidence of industrial and/or academic research links.
	Desirable	Skills in research of hydrogen reacting and non-reacting jets. Knowledge of commercial opportunities in this area.
Other Factors	Essential	Willingness to travel
	Desirable	Driving Licence

The University is legally required to confirm that all new appointees are eligible to work in the UK. If selected for appointment and prior to taking up the post offered at Ulster you must confirm your eligibility to work within the UK by attending a 'New Start' session and produce relevant original documents in order to confirm your identity and entitlement to work in the UK.